We had a wonderful spring luncheon held at the beautifully decorated Bryant Hall, Family Life Center held for the Senior Adults of Orangebug First Baptist Church and their guest. Special thanks to Robin Smith, Jackie Moyer, and Shelia Dukes for the lovely springtime setting. Over 55 in attendance were greeted with a morning devotion and prayer by Rev. Joel Campbell, then a delicious lunch and dessert were served.

Levon Stack of Columbia, accomplished vocalist entertained the group with a variety of Christian and gospel selections, as well as, spiritual testimonials. The tables were a Springtime delight with colorful settings and flower seed packets as favors for all in attendance. Each table arrangement compliments of the Plant Depot, Sheila Dukes, newest committee member of the Golden Fellowship Senior Adults, brought added joy to 7 of the attendees who were winners of the lovely house plants. As we departed, the group was excited to find that a Senior Summer Picnic is being planned for early August.
